Dan Tappan - September 2020

from prompt "Penny in the well"
125bpm; play in D on tuned down guitar

            E                                A
When you wake up in the morning feeling life's getting harder
        B7
Gotta climb a greasy flagpole to ring that bell
E                           A
Runnin down the road,dogs are getting louder
B7                                      C#m
Threw your last penny in a wishing well
B7
Threw your last penny in a wishing well

        A                                   C#m
Gotta dig deep to break the surface  /  Dig deep where rocks are hard
A                                        B7
Dig deep when it makes you nervous / Might find treasure in your own front yard

When you can't find a focus for the light in the window
Can't fight the feeling that comes on strong
Can't make the curve, with pedal to the metal
Can't steer the ship when the sails are gone
Can't steer a ship when sails are gone

chorus
break
C#m Gm A B7

When you're standing in the meadow, storm clouds closing
Black water rising above your knees
Running the maze when your feet are frozen
Hiding in the shadows trying to stifle a sneeze
Hiding in the shadows trying to stifle a sneeze
