Dan Tappan - November 2013

intro

C Dm FM7 E7 Am

C Dm
Autumn shows up unexpected, never calls ahead.
FM7 G
One bright morning, there you'll find her, on your doorstep, dressed in red
C Dm
Brings a spray of purple aster, jug of cider, maybe wine
E7 Am
And all you know is, Autumn's lookin' fine.

Autumn always brings you presents, bag of apples, pumpkin pie.
Takes you out to climb the mountain, silhouetted on the sky.
Harvest Moon above the hills, Bold Orion burnin' bright,
Autumn shows you magic in the night

Am Dm
Sometimes - melancholy, sometimes cheerful, sometimes chill
FM7 F#m7b5 G E7/G#
When she greets you in the morning, never know which face she will
Am Dm
be wearing, but those constant changes serve to keep you on your toes.
E7 Am
Who you'll meet tomorrow, only Autumn knows.

But Autumn wants to wander, here to visit not to stay.

Restless feet and swirling skirts, hears the call then on her way.

Fire burnin' on the hearth, glowing coals to warm the evening
Em Am
Still the world's a little colder,-- when Autumn leaves.
C Fm
Days are growin' longer, winds are blowin' stronger
G E7/G# Am
It's time for Winter's song, when Autumn leaves
