

Only Autumn Knows

Dan Tappan - November 2013

intro

C Dm FM7 E7 Am G

C
Autumn shows up unexpected, never calls ahead.
FM7
One bright morning, there you'll find her, on your doorstep, dressed in red
C
Brings a spray of purple aster, jug of cider, maybe wine
G
And all you know is, Autumn's lookin' fine.

C
Autumn always brings you presents, bag of apples, pumpkin pie.
FM7
She Takes you out to climb the mountain, silhouetted on the sky.
C
Harvest Moon above the hills, Bold Orion burnin' bright,
G
Autumn shows you magic in the night

Am
- Dometimes melancholy, sometimes cheerful, sometimes chill
FM7
When she greets you in the morning, never know which face she will Am
be wearing, but those constant changes serve to keep you on your toes.
FM7
Who you'll meet tomorrow, only Autumn knows.

break

Am Dm E7 Am a b c

C
But Autumn wants to wander, here to visit not to stay.
FM7
Restless feet and swirling skirts, hears the call then on her way.
C
Fire burnin' on the hearth, glowing coals to warm the evening
G
Still the world's a little colder,-- when Autumn leaves.
C
Days are growin' longer, winds are blowin' stronger
G
It's time for Winter's song, when Autumn leaves

Copyright 2013 - Dan Tappan