

Nothing Endures But The Sea

Dan Tappan - May 2020

3/4 time

C Dm E7

C Dm
I spoke to the seal, on her rock by the shore
G E7
Posing a question I'd pondered for hours:
C Dm
"When is the ending, how will we know?"
G E7
What will come after, where will we go?"
F C
She sang to the stars, that danced in the lee
Dm A
"Nothing endures but the sea"
F C
She sang to the stars, that danced in the lee
E7 Am
"Nothing endures but the sea"
Dm E7

I called to the eagle, alone on her aerie
Asked for advice, told her my worry
Fear and misgivings, demons and doubts
"What are we doing, what's it about?"
Her only reply was a shriek, and a cry:
"Nothing endures but the sky"
Her only reply, a shriek, and a cry:
"Nothing endures but the sky"

Dm G C A Dm9 E7 Am

So I sought the witch at the edge of the wood
Hoping for omens of where matters stood
Feeling forsaken betwixt and between
Lost and alone in a broken machine
The solace she gave was a balm from above
"Nothing endures but love"
The solace she gave, a balm from above
E7 Am
"Nothing endures - but love"
Dm E7 Am
