

Only Autumn Knows

Dan Tappan - November 2013

intro

C Dm FM7 E7 Am

C
Autumn shows up unexpected, never calls ahead.
FM7
One bright morning, there you'll find her, on your doorstep, dressed in red
C
Brings a spray of purple aster, jug of cider, maybe wine
E7
All you know is, Autumn's lookin' fine.

Autumn always brings you presents, bag of apples, pumpkin pie.
Takes you out to climb the mountain, silhouetted on the sky.
Harvest Moon above the hills, Bold Orion burnin' bright,
Autumn shows you magic in the night

Am
Sometimes - melancholy, sometimes cheerful, sometimes chill
FM7
When she greets you in the morning, never know what face she will
Am
be wearing, but those constant changes serve to keep you on your toes.
E7
Who you'll meet tomorrow, only Autumn knows.

break

C Dm E7 Am c b a

Am7
Autumn wants to wander, here to visit not to stay.
FM7
Restless feet and swirling skirts, hears the call then on her way.
C
Fire burnin' on the hearth, glowing coals to warm the evening
Em
Still the world's a little colder,-- when Autumn leaves.
C
Days are growin' longer, winds are blowin' stronger
Em
It's time for Winter's song, when Autumn leaves

Copyright 2013 - Dan Tappan