

Let's Pretend

Dan Tappan - January 2021

Capo 3 - Bb; fingerpick up tempo

C - | G - | Am D (a b) | G

Let's pretend there's a golden land where all the people understand that working, hand-in-hand, will build a better future Let's pretend all are equal, to the law and to each other, as our sisters and our brothers, and we share a common virtue Let's pretend an obligation to the helpless and the needy, not the selfish and the greedy, the cheaters and the fools

Chorus

In the end, as we pretend
And trust it leads our feet along the path.
Let's pretend this is the hour, and we have the power
And then, what we pretend may come to pass then, what we pretend may come to pass

Let's pretend there's a beacon, shining brightly on a hill
A light erasing shadows, exposing lying shills Let's pretend we're a nation, of laws and not of men Let's pretend to hold accountable the ones who'd tear it down Let's pretend there's a better way than hatred and division and, guided by the truth, people make a good decision

Chorus

C - | G - | Am - | D -

Let's pretend this is the hour, and we have the power
then, what we pretend will come to pass
